7	6	6½	19½	As Submitted in Print - Moraine Lake, AB - 150	Peter Mol	J1 -Beautiful scene, nice colours,sharp image, unfortunately suffers from poor mounting and presentation. J2 –Suggest if possible the maker might have tried to get in a slightly different location to eliminate the branch on the left, which is distracting they also could have tried in post processing to straighten up the trees on the right so they do not have the appearance of falling into the image. 9	9	9	27	Calla Lily	Bert Pierre	J2 – The maker of this image has done a very nice job on the clarity of the Calla Lily in the image. The textures and tones in the areas around the Calla Lily compliment the flower. The placement of the Calla Lily in the image has been handled well. J1 – The use of colour, the perceived texture by the techniques in altering the original image are really complimentary to it's outcome I believe that the image holds the viewers eye beautifully and it is stunning	M	HM	Print Creative Winner Print Image of the Night

6½ 6½ 7½ 20½	Cloudy Creek-	Gary Cook	J1 – Nice idea unfortunately the image may have suffered from a perspective selected by the photographer, it could have benefited with use of a polarizer filter, to take the extreme overexposure out of the sky. The sky as exposed does not match the reflection in the cloud which seem unnatural and the image would further benefit by a change in angle to remove the pipe from the bottom left which is a significant distraction. 7½ 9½ 8 25	Oxtongue Lake Sunrise	Karen Cunningham	J2 – The make of this image has chosen the perfect time to take this image the colour saturation is good, the image is nice and sharp the inclusion of the pier on the left draws the eye into the image. The image would be more dynamic if the maker had positioned so the pier was on more of an oblique angle which would bring some tension into the image. The image has been done very nicely.	M	HM

8½ 9½ 7½ 25½	Sienna	Ted Buck	J1 – Effective use of the nude form, appropriately placed in the frame, with nice lines, and good exposure for the subject matter. J2 – the maker has done an exceptional job on the lighting and the sharpness of the image. The position of the arms on an oblique angle adds drama to this image.	S	HM	Print Pictorial Winner
